Amazing Fact

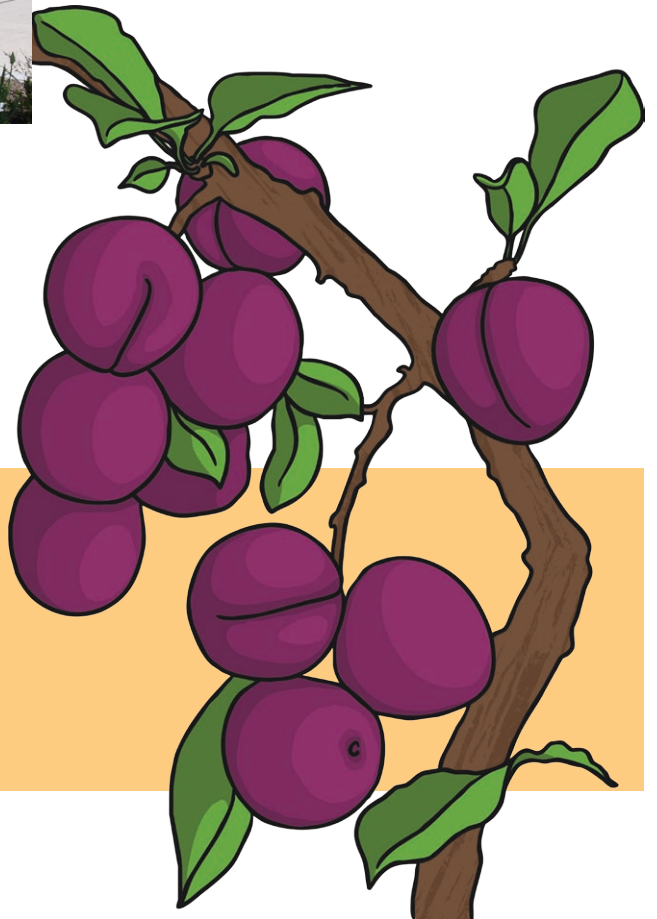

American artist, Sam Van Aken, has created a series of fruit trees which produce over 40 different types of fruit. The fruits he chooses to add to the trees are antique strains of fruit, which would otherwise be lost forever.

You could try to find out:

- how one tree can contain 40 types of fruit;
- what the trees look like when they blossom;
- if the principle of 'grafting' can be applied to anything else.
